SPECIAL SESSION OF CITY COUNCIL.

Auspicious Opening of Pingree National Bank-Names Of Officers.

ATTRACTIONS FOR THE FOURTH.

Fuseral of Levi D. Hammond at Roy-Death of William E. Conlin.

A special meeting of the city council was held last night, at which the names of Mrs. Dr. Gordon, Mrs. Evelyn West, and A. P. Bigelow were submitted by the mayor and confirmed members of the library board. Mrs. S. Emerson and Daniel Hamer retiring.

The resignation of Jos. Bott as police officer was submitted, and accepted. With the exception of a few other unimportant matters, the meeting was devoted to the consideration of the new cevised city ordinances, which progressed very satisfactorily.

OPENING OF PINGREE BANK.

The Pingree National bank opened its doors yesterday morning at 10 o'clock for business, with James Pino'clock for business, with James Pin-gree as cashier and receiving teller; James Riley as paying teller, and Pearl Dallimore as stenographer and book-keeper. The bank opened in a most fattering manner, much to the satis-faction of the officers. In a conversa-tion with a "News" representative last evening, Cashier Pingree stated that the deposits received during the day were much greater than had been expected, many of the leading business houses giving the bank at least a portion of their business, also private captialists placed their money of deposit. The bank's location, Washington avenue and Twenty-fifth street, is one of the finest in the city, and its office fixtures and furnishings are very elegant. The bank is capitalized for $175,000, and the incorporators are all but one well known and influential Ogden business men. The names of the officers of the men. the large concourse of friends who assembled. A platform for the casket and speakers was built, and beautifully draped in white. with boquets of ly draped in white, with boquets of flowers every few feet, and the pure white casket was covered with elegant floral offerings. These marks of re-spect, together with the feeling addresses and very large funeral cortege that followed his remains to the new ceme-tery at Roy, indicated the love and followed his remains to the new cemeters at Roy, indicated the love and esteem in which the young man was held in the community. The services were presided over by Bishop Thomas Hollands, and the ward choir sang some very sweet music. Miss Weltha Belnap of Ogden sang a beautiful solo. Words of comfort and praise of the honorable, bright, useful young man were spoken by Presidents L. W. Shirtliff and C. F. Middleton, Patriarch George W. Larkin, Bishops George Kendall, John Watson and Thomas Hollands, Elders C. Gamer, James Russell, hands, Elders C. Gamer, James Russell, William Baker and Joseph L. Alvord. The sympathy of the entire community is with the grief stricken young wife, parents, brothers and sisters of the deceased.

THE EASIEST WAY. Wisest Disposition of Surplus Money.

Men and women who are working for a salary are frequently discouraged be-cause they do not appear to be any nearer the acquirement of a small for-tune than when they began. The trou-ble is that they either spend too much tune than when they began. The trouble is that they either spend too much of their income on luxuries or do not know a proper and judicious use to make of their savings. Rich men are those who have made their money work for them. That is the whole secret. A small sum placed in a profitable investment, where there is no risk of loss, will eventually be converted into a comfortable fortune. That is what McGurrin & Co., the investment bankers, are doing for their numerous customers. They handle large or small amounts, and guarantee six per cent on every dollar placed with them, and also guarantee the security. It is to the advantage of everyone to examine their high grade securities, and to grasp this chance of making themselves independent. The customer, if he so wishes, may hold the securities, while the money he has invested is working for him. Safety, a high rate of interest, and the building up of a snug fortune. These are the guarantees that are within the reach of anyone who has idle dollars accumulated. one who has idle dollars accumulated.
